

If Broadcast radio was really interested in the needs and wants of the American People, people would not have to subscribe to Satellite radio. I can listen to the same station and travel the entire continent without changing the radio dial.